

THE C G JUNG SOCIETY OF ST. LOUIS INFORMED CONSENT FOR IN-PERSON ATTENDANCE AT THE 2022 JUNG-IN-THE-HEARTLAND CONFERENCE DURING THE COVID-19 PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS

This document contains important information about the decision to attend the Conference and/or enter the premises of the Conference site in light of the COVID-19 public health crisis. This information is intended to supplement any general informed consent document and address additional public health considerations. This document will also briefly describe expectations and the responsibilities of each person who participates in the Conference on site.

Risks of Choosing In-Person Attendance

You understand that by choosing to participate in the Conference, you are assuming the risk of potential exposure to Covid-19 (or any other public health risk). This risk may increase if you do not adhere to public health guidance (including, but not limited to, vaccination, wearing a face cover, and social distancing), or travel by public transportation, cab, or ridesharing service.

Your Responsibility to Minimize Your Exposure

To attend the Conference, you agree to take certain precautions which will help keep everyone safer from exposure, sickness and possible death. If you do not adhere to these safeguards, it may result in our starting / returning to a telehealth arrangement. You agree to observe and obey all posted and emailed rules and guidelines and warnings regarding Covid-19, and further agree to follow any oral instructions or directions given by representatives or agents of The C G Jung Society of St. Louis. You agree to self-monitor for signs and symptoms of COVID-19 (symptoms typically include fever, cough, and shortness of breath), and to immediately notify appropriate representative of The C G Jung Society of St. Louis.

Commitment to Minimize Exposure

The C G Jung Society of St. Louis has taken steps to reduce the risk of spreading Covid-19 at the Conference. As part of this effort, all attendees are required to present proof of vaccination at time of registration. Unless the local authority having jurisdiction changes its current rules, face masks are recommended but not required for attendance at the conference. Disposable face covers will be available for any attendee upon request. COVID-19 rapid result test kits will be available for the use of attendees upon request. Please ask any of the St. Louis Society Board Members at the Conference any questions you may have about these efforts.

If You Are Sick

You understand that if you are participating in the Conference or present on the premises and The C G Jung Society of St. Louis believes that you have a fever or other symptoms of Covid-19, or believe you have been exposed, you will be required to leave the premises immediately.

Release of Liability

You, the undersigned hereby release, indemnify and hold harmless The C G Jung Society of St. Louis including, without limitation, its officers, directors, and agents, individually and collectively, from and against any and all legal responsibilities, losses, claims, damages, causes of action, or liabilities, costs and expenses (including attorneys' and court fees), if any, which may arise out of any actual or alleged exposure to Covid-19 connected with participation in onsite attendance at the Jung-in-the-Heartland Conference.

Informed Consent

By acceptance of this agreement, you give your consent to the provision of onsite attendance at the 2022 Jung-in-the-Heartland Conference with a full understanding of the potentially increased risks due to the COVID-19 public health crisis.
