

HEARTLAND ASSOCIATION OF JUNGIAN ANALYSTS
Rogers AR and St Louis MO

Dear Friend of Jung:

The Heartland Association of Jungian Analysts (HAJA) Seminars, which meets monthly, September through May, rotating between St. Louis, Missouri and Rogers, Arkansas, invites interested individuals to visit a seminar in March (Rogers, AR) or in April (St Louis, MO) this year.

You are invited to attend our movie/discussion evening on Friday, and the Saturday morning presentation. Cost for this visit is $75 and includes 5 hours of NBCC CEs. This is an opportunity to try out the HAJA seminars as you consider joining us in the future.

The weekend begins with a movie and discussion related to the theme of the month, from 7 pm to approximately 9 or 9:30 pm Friday. On Saturday the morning didactic begins at 9 am and runs until approximately noon. The seminar also meets for 4 hours in the afternoon, but this time is often a more experiential and personal exploration of the topic, so Saturday afternoon is reserved for current seminar members only.

On March 8 and 9, we will meet at the Center for Psychology in Rogers, Arkansas. Our focus for the month is Alchemy, and Saturday's didactic will be taught by Tom Elsner, Jungian Analyst from Santa Barbara CA, and faculty with the C.G. Jung Study Center of Southern California.

On April 12 and 13, we will meet at Sheldon Culver's office in the Central West End, St. Louis, Missouri. Our focus for the month is Symbol Formation with Rose Holt, Jungian Analyst, living and practicing in St. Louis MO.

If you would like to discuss visiting during one of these two seminar opportunities, please contact Sheldon Culver at 636-795-0750 or email her at im4shadow@gmail.com.
